

I am strongly opposed to the recommendations allowing (or, in fact, mandating) wiretap access for broadband and VoIP providers. Not only would this stifle innovation in a new industry, but the privacy concerns are simply appalling.

Thanks.

-- Sam